Dear Waverly Families,

This will be the final Whisper of this year. I’d like to take this opportunity to thank all of the parents who supported their children and our school by attending a virtual event, communicating with your child’s teachers, engaging with the PTA, working with me to better our school and most importantly, working with your child at home.

I’d also like to thank my colleagues who were determined to make a challenging year feel as “normal” as possible. Their perseverance made our students feel welcomed, loved and engaged in their learning.

Most importantly, I’d like to thank our students who never gave up. With each and every twist and turn of this year, our children were flexible, patient, courageous and responsible. Our learners are what make Waverly, Waverly.

I wish you all a healthy and safe summer.

Our annual first grade moving up concert will be in-person! Be sure to read the letter I sent to all first grade families last week.

Waverly psychologists, Melissa Schaer and Marcie Gatchalian (known to our students as the “feelings teachers”) visit each classroom monthly to engage students in lessons aligned with our words of the month and focus on community building. Their monthly newsletter is designed to keep parents abreast of the strategies shared to foster the home-school connection and allow parents to employ some of the strategies and techniques with their children at home.

3. Helping Kids Cope

A special note from our school psychologists...

Given the challenges and uncertainty that this year has brought, we thought it would be helpful to share information regarding how to help support your child and reduce feelings of stress. It is important to note that not all children respond to stress in the same way. The following are some common behavior changes to look for in children aged 4-7:

- Cling to parents/difficulty separating
- Cry or be tearful
- Display increased emotions: such as irritability, anger, anxiety, and fear
- Experience changes in behavior: quieter/more reserved or acting out more
- Share complaints about physical symptoms (headache, stomach aches)
- Have bathroom accidents (increase or newly developing)
- Engage in thumb sucking
- Display avoidance/ refusal to come to school
- Experience sleep difficulties

Here is the complete list of eight tips. (Thanks to our school psychologists for putting this list together!
